REGIONAL STAKEHOLDERS CONSULTATION IN ASIA AND CROSS-REGIONAL EXCHANGE WITH AFRICA AND LATIN AMERICA AND THE CARIBBEAN

“A NATURE-POSITIVE TRADE FOR SUSTAINABLE AGRICULTURE, SUPPLY CHAINS AND SOCIO-ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT”

Date

26-27 September 2023

Location

Borobudur Hotel, Jakarta, Indonesia

The Consultation workshop will gather diverse stakeholders to discuss priorities, challenges and opportunities in the region; and explore and provide recommendations for actionable solutions to move towards a sustainable and inclusive nature-positive trade that supports countries to:

1. Achieve sustainable supply chains of agricultural commodities;
2. Facilitate market access to all stakeholders in compliance with regional trade agreements, and multilateral environmental agreements such as the Kunming-Montreal Global Biodiversity Framework; and better prepare for changing market regulations, e.g. EU deforestation-free products regulation (EUDR);
3. Advance national plans for sustainable social and economic development;
4. Hold a cross-regional exchange between stakeholders from Asia, Africa and Latin America and the Caribbean, who will share their perspectives on the solutions and the way forward to promote a trade system supportive of sustainable agriculture, protecting biodiversity, and facilitating sustainable development.

Target participants

Key stakeholders in Indonesian key agricultural commodities, environment and trade sectors will be invited to join the Consultation in-person and online. These will consist of governments, private sector – smallholders, commodity associations, trading cooperatives, policymakers, civil society, research and financial institutions.
